PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Communications professional with hands-on experience in digital marketing and product communications inside a technology company, looking to grow into technology and partner marketing. Bachelor in Social Communication (Universidad Nacional de Rosario) with a technical background in IT. At e-ducativa —an EdTech platform with 2.5M+ users across 13 countries and 600+ institutional clients— I coordinate initiatives across Product, Technology, Design, and Services and translate complex product features into clear communication: product newsletters, the corporate website, and documentation. Experienced in content strategy, editorial planning, storytelling, and using audience metrics to improve content. Advanced English (C1); used to working autonomously in distributed teams.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Content & Streaming Producer — GGWP (MargaTV)

04/2026 – Present | Rosario, Argentina

- Defined the editorial strategy and weekly content plan for a live streaming show on gaming and digital culture, setting topics, structure, and messaging priorities.
- Planned each episode's content and coordinated its promotion with the social media and design teams, turning every broadcast into derivative pieces for digital channels.
- Prepared interviews with game developers and industry figures: background research, topic and question design, guest coordination, and stakeholder communication logistics.
- Worked on the broadcasts and derivative pieces feeding the project's Instagram account and followed their audience metrics: 121,000+ views over the last 90 days.
- Took part in the project's communication and content strategy and in industry event coverage, coordinating production so each coverage became social media content.
- Reviewed each broadcast afterwards to identify highlights, production adjustments, and content opportunities for the following episodes.

Digital Communication Manager — 3Factor Design

12/2025 – Present | Rosario, Argentina

- Planned the digital communication strategy for a design studio from launch, aligning brand identity, editorial calendar, and commercial goals.
- Analyzed reach and engagement metrics to iterate on content and improve its performance, and handled commercial inquiries from clients.
- Produced content and managed the social channels on a consistent publishing calendar.
- Built the brand identity from scratch: name, visual system, tone of voice, and commercial presentation.

Digital Project Coordinator & Product Communications — e-ducativa S.A.

09/2022 – Present | Rosario, Argentina

- Coordinated cross-functional initiatives across Product, Technology, Design, and Services, translating technical needs into clear communication and keeping stakeholders aligned on priorities.
- Owned the monthly product newsletter end to end, turning updates from Product, Technology, and Services into a single centralized channel that reinforced product awareness across the company.
- Co-led the redesign and launch of the corporate website (WordPress) with a graphic designer, taking messaging, content architecture, and implementation from concept to delivery.
- Maintained functional documentation and product wikis for the platform, contributed hands-on to feature development with the engineering team, and drove internal adoption of AI-assisted workflows (Claude / Claude Code).
- Facilitated weekly cross-functional meetings with Technology, Services, and the Product Owner, tracking progress, priorities, blockers, and next steps.
- Managed workflow and task tracking in Trello for cross-functional teams, keeping owners, priorities, and delivery status visible.
- Strengthened brand consistency across the redesigned website and the product newsletter, consolidating a unified editorial and visual voice.
